CLASS OF 1932

New Albany High School
New Albany, Indiana

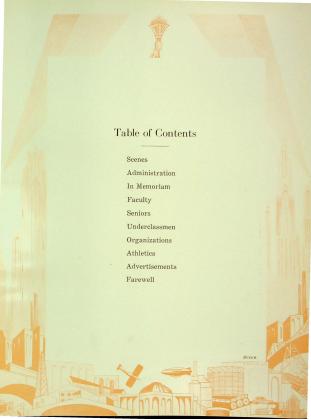

FOREWORD

Dedication

WE, the Seniors of the class of '32,
Dedicate our annual to a man
Whose loyalty to service, ideals of character,
Knowledge, and belief in the necessity of the fitness of things
Will provide an inspiration to us in the tasks we undertake
When we pass through the portals of our school for the last time.

—Bill Hermann.

Will and Testament

K Now all men by these presents: The Senior Class of New Albany High School, being of sound mind and a disposing disposition, here upon our bed of death do make the following requests:

- We grant to the future Senior Class of 1933 the right of publishing a Senior Blotter like unto our own (you are going to have to go some to beat ours).
- We leave in due respect much grey hair to our Annual Critic, Miss Rockenbach. (Don't tell her we told you.)
- To all those who may be so privileged we bequeath the right to pester our beloved Class Critic, Miss Kelso.
- To Teachers, the honor of again hearing the sleeping tunes (or in other words just plain snores) of Art McFall.
- To you uncontrollable ones we extend the right to form a McGonk organization like the one now led by the undauntable Raymond Hubler. (J. K. is their critic, but she won't have it.
- 6. Here upon our death bed we do forgive our Principal for so ravishingly devouring Coach Thom's candy (you wouldn't give us any, would you?)
- To you future students of Civics we bequeath you the privilege of arguing with J. H. Thomas "The Dry Champion". (Hope you beat him. We "think" we did.)
- We leave with much deserved pleasure to mathematical students Albert H. Koehler and his "monkey shines" (Take a hint—give them the haw!)
- We will to you Bulldogs of "33" that fight, that glory, and that victory that was ours over the Jeff Red Devils. (Lick them again, just for us.)
- 10. We leave to Juniors the enjoyment and laughter that was ours at the Senior Class Play rehearsals. (English teachers contend that they brought them headaches only. But, oh well! why argue?)

Thirty for

- For Junior boys, the right to toss your underclassmen into the cold, dreary showers on your Senior Day, next year. (Maybe then they will be all wet too.)
- 12. We bequeath you ambitious and aspiring ones the honor of climbing unmolested out the windows of Demi D. Finley, New Albany Einstein. (Please swipe his telescope while you are at it.)
- To such individuals as may so desire them we do impart razzers found on school premises. (Give them a good blast for us while you are at it.)
- 14. We do kindly instruct you of either sex not to cut, tear or otherwise mar the dignified pictures of said Seniors in this Annual.
- 15. We do leave you, to prove our charitable natures, all chewing gum found under Seniors' desks. It may be rechewed as long as the "Queer Ones" (teachers) don't see you. Ho! Ho!
- 16. We leave with you all love birds that have so worn out the "beautiful" halls of our "majestic" High School by their constant shouting. (Maybe they will all be married by summer—who knows?)
- 17. We hereon do charge that any trays left on tables of cafe of said school were forgotten thus by the faculty (or Sophomores. But what's the diff—they're all alike.)
- 18. We do make a law, in our dying days, that shall henceforth be put into effect. It, if stated, shall be: "In order to protect Seniors of New Albany High School we do hereby proclaim that no Sophomore flapper or a sheik of that underclass from this period till that class does leave this school during study periods may vamp or take by brute physical power any member of aforesaid Seniors that may be graduating. (That's telling Baby Sophs, isn't it?)
- 19. And lastly, as we will with the shaky hand of a dying class, we do leave behind to future graduating classes the honor of feeling that same regret and that same sorrow that is ours upon leaving N. A. H. S. (That's serious.)

Signed and sworn to by the Senior Class of New Albany High School, here on the twentiath day of the month of May in the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and thirty-two.

New Albany Senior Class of "32".

Being a solemn witness of this document as the last will and testament of that class, hereon I do affix my name

CHARLES LEIST.

Senior Girls

C.O.L.L.E.E.N.S.

The Senior Girls, in order to live up to their noted reputation as L. L. E. E. N. S. early in the semester.

Green, the color beloved by all coming from the Emerald Isle, was worn by these flirtatious C. O. L. L. E. E. N. S. on Senior Day, May 27, and numerous masculine hearts were fluttering from the effects of this same green.

In order to commune with Mother Nature and receive advice from that worldly-wise lady, these same C. O. L. L. E. E. N. S. went strolling to the country.

Miss Green is the uncritical Critic of this group. Colleen Ruth Braeutigam is the leader of these dangerous charmers from the Isle of the Shamrock, but, after all, they are just Cheerful, Ornamental, Lovable, Laughing, Educated, Extraordinary, Naughty Seniors.

Senior Boys

C.H.A.M.P.S.

Wishing to give the present champions a reason to resign the post and to cause the world to sit up and take notice, the Senior Boys proclaimed themselves as C. H. A. M. P. S. de luxe.

At their first opportunity these famed C. H. A. M. P. S. telegraphed to far countries and all erstwhile champions that Paul Gilley was the C. H. A. M. P. of all C. H. A. M. P. S. To this day, yea, forever this dauntless king will remain unchallenged. Coach Thom was chosen as the C. H. A. M. P. Critic.

On Senior Day these examples of fame justly portrayed their right to be called C. H. A. M. P. S. by their clothing, and everyone was impressed with the majesty of their dignity as Big People.

Although these impressive C. H. A. M. P. S. were overwhelmingly important because of their status, it is found that, in the end, they are just Cheerful, Helpful, Attentive, Merry, Peaceful Seniors.

The main charity work of the Speakers Club is the annual Thanksgiving dinner for the needy children of the city. November 20 and 21 were designated as tag day in school and in the city respectively. A total of $207.36 was realized, permitting the club to increase its number of guests. The club assisted in the sale of tickets for a charity show given in the city and aided in other capacities whenever called upon.

Speakers have presented two pep sessions; one on November 6 for football; the other for basketball on February 19.

Those participating in the Speaker-Wrangler Christmas play on December 18 were: Mary Frances Kahl, Wilva Hankinson, Robert Wrege, and Albert Groh.

At the Speaker dinner on May 7, the Speakers and their guests embarked on the S. S. Scotla plying between the ports Then and Now. The cafeteria was transformed into a ship's dining-salon with fish and life savers predominating in the decoration scheme. Those making toasts were: Orrabel Mann, Ruth Braeutigam, Myrtha Coyte, Sue Railing, and Miss Kirk.

The biennial tea for former Speakers was given at the Country Club May 21.

The final activity will be a two-weeks' vacation at Hilltop Camp which all are anticipating with great pleasure.

D URING this past school year, the Wranglers made great strides toward their goal—that is, to promote an interest in public speaking in our high school.

Any boy who is a Sophomore A and has an average of "B" in English is eligible for membership. The quota of the club is restricted to twenty members.

The club's activities began on November 26 by giving aid to the Speakers in helping to make their annual Thanksgiving Dinner, for the benefit of the poor children, a big success.

Next came the annual Speaker-Wrangler Christmas play. Two Wranglers were chosen for the cast,

In the debate last fall between the Wranglers and the S. R. S., the Wrangler team won. The D. A. R. contest was won by one of the four Wranglers who took part in it.

Three Wranglers spoke in the Sapinsky Contest, and one of them was awarded second place.

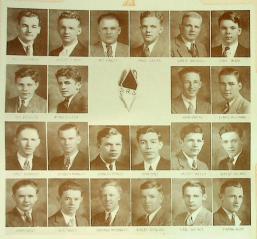

The Wranglers officially closed their program for the year with a banquet held at the Colonial Club on April 30. Two Seniors and one Junior made speeches, and our President assumed the role of toastmaster.

The Wranglers Club in due respect extends to their critic, Mr. Thomas, their heartfelt thanks for his patience, his cooperation, and his good advice that has helped us out of many difficulties. We wish him continued success in his work and hope that he will also continue as critic of the Wranglers for many years to come.

THE purpose of the Art Club is to create an interest in beautiful surroundings and to co-operate with school activities.

The initiation early in the fall was held on Fawcett's hill. In November, the club sponsored the annual picture exhibit, and the proceeds from this exhibit were used to buy three pictures for the High School.

During the Christmas season hand blocked Christmas cards were made and sold, and several candy sales were held to increase the funds of the treasury.

The club spent several weeks preparing the scenery for the operetta, "Up in the Air."

With the beginning of the football season the Boosters Club inaugurated a new plan for a series of pep sessions. A schedule, which made each club in school responsible for a pep session, was arranged by the Booster representatives. This scheme proved so satisfactory that it was continued throughout the entire basketball season.

In former years it has been customary for New Albany Senior High School to have only automobile parades for the purpose of arousing interest among the students and advertising the games. This year, however, marching parades were found to be just as effective. On the night before the game the students met at a designated soon and marched through the town carrying banners and red lights.

In honor of our annual contest with St. Xavier High School we had a parade, followed by a bonfire and pep rally at Buerk Field. This brought out a large crowd of loyal fans, ranging from the dignified Seniors and some Alumni down to the grade school students and little raga-musfins who brought up the rear. Coach Thom, accompanied by Captain Bob Turner, was forced to ride in a very old hack, decorated to fit the occasion with red and black and green and yellow ribbons and drawn by two white horses. The High School band led the procession through the streets and up to Buerk Field.

During the football season the Boosters decorated the field for every game. This was made possible through the efforts of a loyal corps of workers. As in the past years the gymnasium was decorated for both basketball tournaments.

Pep sessions sponsored by the Club kept the school spirit alive throughout the year, and PEP reached its height when New Albany beat its old rival, Jeff, in the Sectional Tournament—the fans almost went wild with enthusiasm.

A T the State Commercial Contest held at Muncie on April 30, New Albany placed third among the typewriting B teams and fifth in shorthand.

Every student taking commercial work entered into the preliminary contest this year, and the 25 schools ranking the highest were permitted to send teams to the finals. In typewriting the class average was second highest, with Charles Thurman placing highest of individuals in the State. In bookkeeping and shorthand, the teams ranked tenth and twelfth, respectively, out of the 190 schools competing.

Band and Orchestra

This year marked the first in the history of the school that the music department entered the State Band and Orchestra contest sponsored by the Indiana Band and Orchestra Association.

The Band, Orchestra, and the Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps journeyed to Rising Sun, Indiana, on April 23, where the Sectional contest was held. New Albany's entrants were highly successful in this contest, the Band winning a trophy for the "Best Marching Band," the Orchestra deed by the Corps who give the class Is conbally the Went Band and an experience of the Corps who will be the balls by the Wurltter Company in recognition of their good work. Charles Heckel won a medal and a music stand for placing first in a Sousaphone Solo contest.

On May 5, 6, and 7, the Band, Orchestra, and Girls' Drum and Bugle Corps went to the state finals in Evansville. Although unsuccessful in bringing home any prizes, the entire musical organization gained valuable pointers, which will aid them in future contests, from grouns that have competed in the contests in previous years,

WITH the start of the 1931 Football season Coach Thom had a world of material around which he hoped to build a winning combination. After the first couple of practices the prospects for a winning team looked very good. but if Coach Thom could have foreseen the many misfortunes that lay ahead of him he probably would have canceled every game on the schedule

The season opened on September 25. The team journeyed to Seymour, Ind., to play the Sevmour Owls, the game was played in a downpour of rain. The Owls succeeded in getting a few breaks and emerged victorious by an 8 to 0 score. The team played this game without the services of three of the regulars.

The following week the Bulldogs journeyed to Columbus and defeated the Columbus Bulldogs 6 to 0.

On October 10 Cathedral High of Indianapolis invaded the Bulldog camp for New Albany's first home game of the season, and went home with a 7 to 6 victory. It was in this game that Coach Thom started what he might call a first team. But his hopes of a victory were shattered when Caesar and Ott had to be taken from the game in the first quarter because of injuries.

F. J. Reitz was met on October 17, and the Bulldogs suffered a 13 to 0 beating at the hands of the Reitzmen.

October 24 the Bulldogs beat Reitz Memorial.

Coach Thom took his team to Princeton on October 31, and there met up with the powerful Princeton tigers who succeeded in defeating the Bulldogs 26 to 0.

Bloomington was the next team to tackle the Bulldogs, when the game started Coach Thom had three regulars in the game. Due to injuries and other mishaps the first squad sat on the sidelines and watched the team go down to a 20 to 6 defeat.

On November 7 Manual of Indianapolis came to New Albany and went home with a 31 to 6 victory. This game was the first of a three-game series to be played between the two schools.

On Thanksgiving day the Bulldogs met the St. Xavier Tigers of Louisville. The game was played on a typical Southern Indiana

Eliebtweece

Thanksgiving day. The field was sloppy, and this, mixed with a cold bleek rainy day, didn't do the crippled Bulldog team any good, and they went down to a stinging 27 to 6 defeat.

Although the season was not an impressive one in the win column. Coach Thom and the members on the team deserve a lot of credit for sticking it out through such a season as they had. Old Man Misfortune seemed to be with the team this season; almost in every game Coach Thom was forced to start a new line-up. Two days before the Seymour game Mr. Thom was greeted with the news that three of the regulars would not get to play because of skipping school. The following week the school received a severe shock when Alvin "Buddy" Bettman, a Sophomore and a member of the team, had died because of an injury that he had received during practice. Not one time during the season could Coach Thom say that he didn't have someone on the ailing list. We hope that next year the football team will not suffer such severe set backs as it had this vear.

SECOND TEAM

Basketball

Fine the third time in four years Cach J. W. Ballard has succeeded with the control Tournament and groing to the final grame of the Regional Tournament, and grame of the Regional Tournament, which was the summer than the season with two letterman, ppt. Herman Caesar and Robert Tourn's with whom he made a team that twas to have its up's and down's allowed the season of the season of the season with the season of the sea

The team was strengthened at the start of the second semester by the addition of Walter Kahl to the squad who put much needed drive into the team, that helped them to come through in the tournaments.

The season started with a bang with the Bulldogs winning three games in a row, Corydon, Madison and Paoli. The Corydon game was an over-time, but Madison and Paoli fell by rather large scores.

Central High of Evansville invaded the Bulldog camp and went how with a 24 to 20 victory In the next three games the Bulldogs were victorious over Greensburg, St. Xavier, and Salem. The St. Xavier game was played on New Year's afternoon.

On January 9, the Annual Bilind Tournament was held at New Albany. In the first game of the afternoon New Albany defeated Corydon 35 to 22. Salem took the floor an hour later and whipped Paoli 27 to 21. The consolation game of the night brought together Corydon and Paoli with Corydon emerging the victor by a 46 copy score. In the final game Salem defeated New Albany by 20 to 17 to win the tourney for the third time in four years.

In resuming their regular schedule the Bulldogs took it on the nose in the next four games. They were defeated by Male, Seymour, Corydon, and Mitchell.

New Albany defeated Salem in the next game 18 to 11, but lost a Charity Game to Manual High School of Louisville by 26 to 21.

Washington and Scottsburg defeated New Albany, but in the final game of the season the Bulldogs came through with a 32 to 23 victory over North Vernon.

The New Albany High School Bulldogs entered the Sectional Tournament as the under dog team. They were not considered by sports writers to have much of a chance of winning the tournament.

New Albany opened the tourney by shipping Borden 22 to 8. On Saturday morning they defeated New Washington 24 to 8. In the semi-final game the Bulldops played their best game of the season and defeated their old rivals, the Jeffersonville Red Devils, by 14 to 9. The final game of the night brought together New Albany and Silver Creek, and the Creekers went down to defeat at the hands of the Bulldogs by 23 to 17.

The following Saturday the Ballardmen left for Bedford for the Regional Tournament. They met Bedford in the first game of the afternoon and defeated the Stoncoutters by 18 to 16 in one of the best games ever played on the Bedford Court.

In the final game that night the much smaller New Albany team appeared tired after their heroic struggle with Bedford and were toddled by the Seymour Owls by a 27 to 17 score.

Girls' Athletics

M ISS BOARD, physical culture instructor, is doing much to promote further interest in girls' athletics. Although no athletic work is done outside of the regular gymnasium classes, we find a great amount of enthusiasm aroused in the interclass bas:ball and basket-ball tournaments.

Last fall Elizabeth Flock's eleven won the baseball tourney.

Cool weather brought the girls indoors to perform more strenous exercises as: tumbling, pyramid building, and stunting. Tumbling is invaluable to people; it develops courage and initiative, perseverance and self respect. Tumbling accomplishes a self satisfaction and pride that no other gymmastic activity produces.

A lighter type of gymnastic work done is the rythmic dancing, consisting of national, characteristic, eccentric, and aesthetic types which were used in the Operetta and Class Plays.

The interclass basketball tournament was played the first of April with "Liz" Flock's team again victorious.

Warm weather brought the girls outdoors to mimic the boys on the track in hurdling, high jumping, and relay racing.

Volley ball, baseball, tennis, and archery round up the spring activities.

Advertising

W E do set aside this section for advertisement in respect to Progress. That social function of the world as a whole would have been much hinder-d in its course, had it not been for the advertising mediums which so presented themselves as to carry to the people of all ages, sexes, and nationalities the fruits of a fast climbing civilization. Were it not for progress there would have been no need for the great advertising facilities of today. Truly, they do go hand in hand. We must, however, bind them more closely together. Let them become as one. If we advertise we must progress, if we progress, we must advertise. So let us fight depression, fight rebellion, and fight the dragging down of the American Youth to lower business standards through our many types of advertisement. Let us, in truth "Fight on for Progress".

SAVING MONEY EXPENSIVELY

Scrimping and scraping and pinching pennies is not always real economy.

Being "Penny wise and pound foolish" is an only too common failing.

You may waste time, health, beauty, recreation and opportunity for self-culture by saving pennies—pennies that would pay the wages of Gas and Electric Servants to work for you and make possible any or all of those other things.

The cost is only a few cents a day.

FAREWELL

A DENSE grey curtain held us back;

The curtain that veils the future, Causing rebellion to seethe in us. A restless spirit urged us on But a cruel sardonic Fate refused release.

Eager to follow the call of Visions inspired by Youth, To follow the trail that the Song of a dreamer—vagabond music—

Brings to our yearning eyes.

Our souls, in answer to the elfin call,

Filled with the spirit to do and dare,

Take their place in the march of Civilization.

The curtain is slowly drawing back:

Dreamer's song....answer.... Progress.

-Edna Sharp.
